1. This statement of service is furnished under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 11, 1919.

2. This statement is furnished primarily for historical and statistical purposes, although it may be used in adjudicating claims in which the State is solely concerned. It is not to be used before a court of justice or in support of any claim against the Federal Covernment. The law prohibits the furnishing of any information that may be used in the prosecution of a claim against the Government, except to the proper Government officials.

against the Government, except to the proper Government officials.

3. Applications from individuals, other than historians and statisticians, for information from this statement of service should be denied and the applicant directed to apply for the information to The Adjutant General of the Army, who is the custodian of the official records of the Armies of the United States of Exceptions to this rule may be made in the case of officials of patriotic and philanthropic societies and associations when it is known positively that the information is to be used exclusively by said society or association, and will not be made profile nor communicated to any individual who may use it directly or indirectly as a basis for, or in the prosecution of, account against the Government, or to the injury of the soldier.

4. Except as hereinbefore provided, all persons seeking information relative to the military and medical histories of the soldier should be denied information from, or access to, this statement of service as otherwise information legally unobtainable would be made available to persons who might perpetuate frauda upon the Government, or who might seek to injure the soldier.

5. Except the data contained on the first four lines and that relating to battle casualties and physical disability, this statement is prepared as far as practicable from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no efforthms been made to compare the data obtained from the service record, and no effo
