Commandant, U. S. Navy

Commanding.

(It must affirmatively appear hereon that the officer before whom the above oath was made had authority to administer oaths.)

INSTRUCTIONS.

This form must be sworn to before an officer of the United States Navy or Marine Corps, authorized to administer oaths, or before a notary public.

The full names and addresses of the beneficiaries should be carefully stated. If a married woman, her own Christian name should be given, not that of her husband; thus: "Mrs. Anna May Smith," not "Mrs. John Smith."

New beneficiary slips should be filled out and forwarded to the Bureau of Navigation or the Commandant of the Marine Corps in all cases in which such action becomes necessary, by reason of a change in the status of the officer or enlisted man, or of his beneficiaries, due, for example, to marriage, death, birth of children, or the fact that a designated beneficiary should cease to be dependent. In any event payment will be made to the widow or children, if any, of the officer or enlisted man whether designated or not.
